

Course Code: CSE2259
Course Title: Web Technologies
Lab sheet 6

Problem Statement: Mr. Arjun, a fresh graduate Student has joined the software company, and he is been asked to create an attractive web page for the company using HTML and CSS with following specifications.

- Split the web page into two parts using frames, top section 15%, middle section 65% and bottom section 20%.
- Place company logo at the top left (→) of the page (it should be fixed position) and menu (About, Products & Services, News, Contact Us, Login) at the top right (←). with menu's Create hyperlink for all menus.
- Create a web page About the company linked at the middle frame.
- Create a web page about the Products & Services linked at the middle frame.
- Create a web page about the News, list out the news highlights (which should be relative position), linked at the middle frame click any news highlights, should take you to the news in detail
- Create a web page about the Contact Us, list out the contact details at the bottom frame
- Create a web page about the Login page linked at the middle frame.
- Apply suitable css for each page to make the webpage look more attractive